College of Engineering Faculty Boot Camp Series
Day 1: Faculty Advancement – Getting Oriented and Building Momentum

1300-1310: Welcome
• Fall 2017 Boot Camp structure, goals

1310-1340: Presentation/Discussion
• COE Organization and the leadership team
• The strategic plan, its implementation, its relevance to faculty hiring, development as teacher-scholars, and advancement
• Inclusivity, equity, diversity and social justice at OSU and in COE, relevant programs, initiatives, resources

1340-1440: Presentation/Discussion
• Introduction to the office of the associate dean for faculty advancement, initiatives undertaken in 2016-17 and plans for 2017-18
• Position Descriptions, promotion and tenure (P&T), P&T dossiers and candidate’s statements

1440-1500: Break

1500-1540: Panel Discussion: ENGAGING YOUR FIRST THREE YEARS
• Panelists: Andre Barbosa (CCE), Elain Fu (CBEE), Geoff Hollinger (MIME), Matt Johnston (EECS), Haori Yang (NSE)

1540-1650: Interactive Session: REPRESENTING YOUR PROFESSIONAL SELF
• Developing your story …your “candidate’s statement”
  o What is your mission?
  o What goals/milestones must be met in order to accomplish your mission?
  o What steps do you need to take in order to meet each goal?
  ▪ and how might you integrate inclusive, equitable, and just practices along the way?

1650-1700: Wrap-up
• Things to keep in mind as we look ahead to Day 2 (Sep 29) and Day 3 (Oct 6)
• Homework!

1700-1830: Reception